1977 Cheoy Lee 33 Clipper Ketch – A Timeless Classic, Beautifully Refurbished

Some yachts never go out of style, and this 1977 Cheoy Lee 33 Clipper Ketch is a wonderful example. With her elegant lines, traditional ketch rig and reassuring full-keel design, she offers classic sailing appeal combined with an impressive list of recent upgrades. With her solid fibreglass hull has the beauty of timber but the safety and longevity of fibreglass.

Powered by a 30hp Yanmar diesel showing just 300 hours, with servicing completed in 2025, she presents an exciting opportunity for anyone seeking a character-filled yacht ready for her next adventure. Australian registration is an added bonus for those considering future international cruising.

Extensive Upgrades and Renewals

The current owner has invested significantly in refreshing this classic yacht, with improvements extending throughout her rig, sails, deck hardware and onboard systems.

Highlights include:
- New standing and running rigging
- Entirely new Hood sail wardrobe
- Renewed canvas and lazy jacks
- Masts removed and refinished with polyurethane coating
- Renewed chainplates
- Six new Andersen ST12 self-tailing winches
- New Edson steering pedestal
- New toilet
- Garmin wind and depth instruments
- New navigation lights
- New portlight windows
- Replacement seacocks

Modern Electrical and Navigation Systems

Below decks, the electrical systems have been completely rewired, incorporating CZone digital switching and an NMEA 2000 network. Cabin lighting, anchor controls and bow-mounted controls are integrated with the Raymarine Axiom 9-inch chartplotter, providing convenient access to key onboard functions.

New Ground Tackle

Anchoring equipment has also received a substantial upgrade, featuring a brand-new Maxwell anchor winch, new chain and a stainless-steel 10kg anchor.

Classic Character, Modern Improvements

The Cheoy Lee 33 Clipper is admired for her traditional styling, graceful sailing manners and full-keel stability. This example combines that enduring appeal with a considerable list of recent replacements and upgrades, making her an attractive proposition for sailors who appreciate a classic yacht without overlooking the benefits of modern equipment.

Offered for sale through DBY Boat Sales, this well-updated Cheoy Lee is worth a closer look for anyone dreaming of coastal adventures, extended cruising or the possibility of venturing further afield.

A timeless classic with plenty of character and a long list of improvements, ready for her next chapter under sail.
