Description

This 2012 Corsair Sprint MKII trailerable trimaran for sale is fast, fun and performance proven. A great pocket cruiser, daysailer, onedesign or OMR racer that is easy to manage, transport and exhilarating to sail.

Developed from the popular Corsair Sprint 750 with the new more powerful floats off the Corsair Dash 750.

The interior has increased volume with more room above the v berth and an area for porta poti and cooler. Features an extended cockpit for comfortable day sailing.

The first of the new MKII Sprints to come on the market. Launched in early 2012 winning Geelong race week, 4 out of 4 races, and Port Lincoln race weeks in her first two regattas.

Available with either a new set of North Norlam sails including roller furling jib or a Quantum Fusion membrane race main and jib.Trailer also available.
