Description

1973 Duncanson 35 now for sale exclusively with DBY Boat Sales.

Launched in 1973 as Cordon Bleu, then going on to compete in the 1974, '76, '77, and '78 Sydney-Hobart Races under that name, but now known as Swagman this one-time ocean racer is now the very nicely maintained weekender for a young family.

These famous Alan Blackburn designed, Duncanson Yachts Adelaide built 35's have a spectacular reputation as long distance cruising yachts and several went on to circumnavigate both Australia and the World.

Swagman has a 2012 Kubota 35hp diesel in very good shape, with a folding prop. She has a headsail on a furler, and a mainsail, as well as an electric anchor winch.

With 2 solar panels on a custom arch, a 12 volt Engel fridge and freezer, electric fresh water and a two burner metho stove, plus a one burner butane stove as well, she is ready to move a few personal items aboard and start enjoying.

Accommodation is a double v-berth forward and a second double once the dinette is lowered. She also has an enclosed electric toilet.

A very jolly Swagman indeed.
