Built to Lloyds specification by Malcolm Barlow in Australia based on the fabled designs by Naval Architects David Freeman and Gordon Wyatt of the U.K.

Designed for the North Sea, the emphasis of the designers was to provide a well found sailing craft with equal motoring ability.

The design is deceptively roomy as the spacious, and protected pilothouse can be opened up to the cockpit all on the same level.

Below decks the Mark II version features a huge private aft cabin with a double forward plus the dinette also converts to a double bunk.

A generous galley plus fully enclosed bathroom complete the interior.

The 45Hp diesel is in immaculate condition with less than 1600 hours use. The installation includes three fuel filters to ensure safety at sea and longevity of the motor.

The full furling rig is well maintained and very easy to handle.

An as new 2.4 metre inflatable and 3.3Hp outboard are included.

With just 20 Fisher 32’s built in Australia they are a great “Grey Nomad” pocket cruiser… the roominess of a 38 footer with the budget of a 32 footer!

This Fisher is in very good condition and ready to cruise.

Exclusively for sale with David Bray Yachts Pittwater.
