Van de Stadt 30BRIGHTWATER exclusively for sale with DBY Boat Sales - Inspections welcome!

Classic Performance Meets Timeless Design by Van de Stadt

Step aboard a true classic with pedigree. Designed in 1957 by legendary Dutch naval architect E.G. van de Stadt—one of the pioneers of modern lightweight offshore yacht design—the iconic Black Soo design delivers a rare combination of performance, simplicity, and enduring style.

Built locally at Church Point by respected boatbuilder Alec Mitchell, this is a standout example of this revolutionary design, blending classic craftsmanship with thoughtful modern upgrades.

Why the Van de Stadt BRIGHTWATER Stands Out

- Proven hard-chine hull design for speed and stability offshore
- Lightweight yet robust plywood construction
- A design born in the golden era of yacht innovation
- Exciting sailing performance with timeless appeal

Vessel Highlights

- Construction: ½-inch Bruynzeel marine plywood, Dynel sheathed
- Hull Form: Hard chine with angled stem and elegant cambered transom
- Keel: Cast iron ballast
- Displacement: Approx. 2,000 kg

Powering the boat is a near-new 17hp Sole diesel engine (shaft drive) with just 82 hours—recently serviced and running beautifully. Reliable, efficient, and ready to go.

Upgrades & Improvements

- Standing rigging replaced (2017)
- Hull professionally repainted (2021) in durable two-pack polyurethane
- It has a Raymarine ST 1000+ for comfortable cruising
- These upgrades bring peace of mind while preserving the integrity and charm of the original design.

On Deck & Sailing Setup

- Aluminium mast and boom with stainless steel rigging
- Well-equipped sail wardrobe (approx. 6 years old), including:
 - Battened mainsail with boom bag & lazy jacks
 - #1, #2, #3 hank-on jibs

Interior & Accommodation

- Below deck, BRIGHTWATER offers a simple, open-plan layout with excellent natural light and ventilation—perfect for relaxed coastal cruising.

- Sleeps up to 4 people and has a functional galley with water and butane stove on a gimbal
- Clever cockpit infill creates a generous double berth under the stars, ideal for warm summer nights

BRIGHTWATER offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of sailing history; an engaging, lightweight performer that's equally at home club racing, coastal cruising, or simply turning heads wherever she goes.
