His qualifications include AYF Yachtmaster Ocean and Instructor, as well as a commercial Coxswain's ticket for power and sail vessels to 12m.

John and his wife Julie have owned and extensively cruised a total of 10 boats themselves over the past 35 years; both power and sail; single and twin engine

(and currently even a bowthruster finally!) and he is confident in handling and training on all kinds of vessels. Having recently retired from a career in TV commercial production and production asset management John is thrilled to be part of the DBY Team and looks forward to assisting with enquiries whether for power or sail, small or large.
